

Mascots Olympic Games

Name: COBI

ANIMAL SPECIE

Animal especie: cobi animal is a dog

Physical description

Cobi is an orange dog with the logo of the Olympic Games

Personality

Cobi is a great pet both on the outside and inside. He is very kind and empathetic when you are sick he will try to help you and give you advice to grow as a person.

historic meaning

During the creation, he took as reference the doodle of a dog, inspired by a stylized Catalan shepherd and the avant-garde current. Instead of making an analog representation, his design was an anthropomorphic dog of light brown color, pointed ears, a nose pointed to the side with a black ball on the tip, and small eyes.

Why did the city chose this mascot?

The name, Cobi, is an allusion to COOB'92, an abbreviation for Barcelona Olympic Organizing Committee '92. The name was chosen because it is simple and easy to pronounce in most languages. And Javier Mariscal believes it

New mascots: name Mike and he represents Madrid 2030

Animal specie:

MIKE IS A COMMON CHICKEN OF MADRID

Physical description:

It is an aquatic bird and its name is Mike. He usually lives near fresh or salty water, such as lagoons, swamps, etc. Its colors are blue, yellow and orange.

Personality:

Mike is kind, respectful and with character but he will always be there to cook you a good paella and he will always be there for your good moments and your bad moments to help you.

HISTORIC MEANING

Mike is a god of the power and we do a ritual for him so that he can bring us his best warriors

Why did the city chose this mascot?

Because it is an offering to bring us his best warriors