His name is Misha , he is bear his body is brown, he has two ears, black eyes , his ass is upturned and he also has a belt with the Olympic rings and their colors.He is very nice ,sweet,friendly bear,his name is Misha because that is the nickname given to bears in Russian.Was created by Victor Chizhikov .

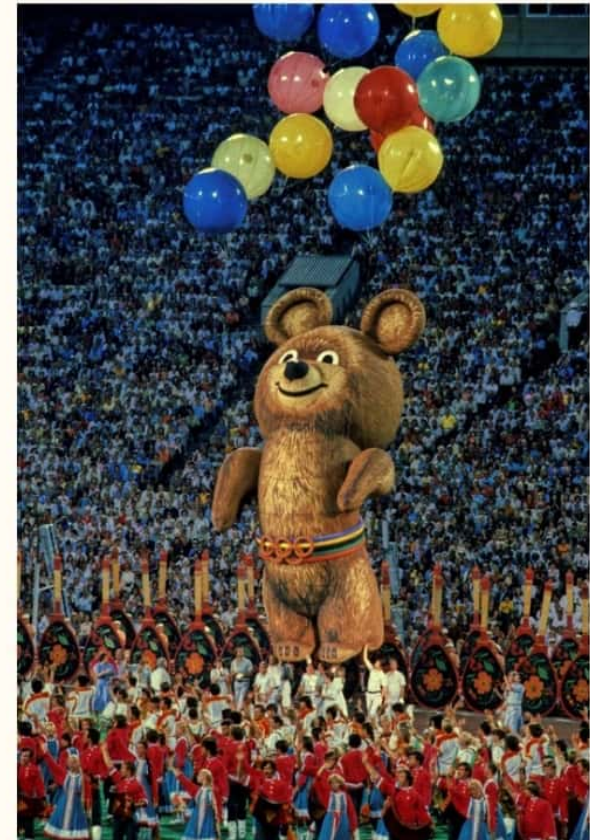

A survey was conducted among viewers of a television program about animals and readers of a sports newspaper to choose a bear as a mascot .

Misha's choice was not coincidental, the brown bear is an animal very present in the deep Russian forests and has long been one of the symbols of the country, both now and during communism. Misha, a diminutive of Mikhail, is one of the affectionate nicknames that bears receive in Russia.
